The class is set-up where if you just need the credit then it'll be the easiest A you can ever get. She does provide extra information for every chapter you go over if you wish to know more and want to explore your interests.

Michelle is a great professor, and truly cares about her students. She has high expectations of her students, but is reasonable. Show up to class, turn in your homework on time, and participate in class, and you will have a great semester.

one of the 2 best professors that I have had since taking classes at ACC. She goes above and beyond to help her students truly learn the information by providing in class activities and making the information fun to learn. The only thing you need to do to get an A in this class is show up and turn in your assignments on time.

She was very helpful with questions, caring, opportunity for extra credit which was a fun project. You were able to go out and experience different things. Really enjoyed her as an instructor.

Michelle explains the law class in simplistic terms and as always keeps the class energy high. She does have high expectations and can be tough.
